FBI Investigating Local Housing Rehab Program

An article in the Tuesday edition of the Bay City Times revealed that past practices in the administration of federal Dept. of Housing and Urban Development low-income housing rehabilitation is currently under investigation by the FBI.

According to the Times, the investigation involves possible misuse of about $35,000 in rehabilitation funds. The controversy was provoked by complaints by a number of homeowners about incomplete rehabilitation work at their homes, and complaints about poor workmanship.

The investigation was called for by Mrs. Jan Cornell, director of the program since last September, who told the Times it will focus on program administration during the first nine months of 1979. She said the investigation was requested because the Housing Commission wished to determine whether or not there were any irregularities in program administration, but did not cite any specific instances other than the possible misuse of the $35,000.

Mrs. Mary Kesteloot, previous director, resigned the post in September of 1979. She told the Times she left the job because of the pressure and time it involved and indicated surprise when advised of the FBI probe.

Investigating agent is Larry Hoffmeister of the Traverse City office who apparently refused to comment on the nature of the investigation.

Johnny Williams To Emcee Carnival Kickoff Dinner-Dance

TV Personality Johnny Williams will be Master of Ceremonies at Thursday night's 1980 Winter Carnival Kickoff Dinner Dance, beginning at 6:30 p.m. at the Hotel Shoppenagon. Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of Miss Toni Trudgeon, Miss Grayling-1980 and the members of her royal court.

Williams, who currently hosts a daily movie program—"The $2.98 Movie"—at 4 p.m. on WGTU-TV, Channel 29 (Traverse City) and WGTQ TV, Channel 8 (Sault Ste. Marie), will celebrate 50 years in the broadcasting business in 1982.

He started out in 1932 as a high school student with WFEA in Manchester, N.H., his home town. He has broadcast from balloons, submarines, from typhoon hunter aircraft, wartime battlefields, and at one time or another, from every state in the nation.

Johnny has been employed on several tours of duty as a liaison officer between the Government of Guam and the Strategic Air Command in the Pacific area and returned to Michigan in 1972 where he won a wide following at WLDR with his "Williams at Work" radio show. In the late fifties and early sixties Johnny's zany weathercasts on WPNB-TV, replete with turtles, monkeys, dogs, etc., won wide recognition throughout Michigan.

Sheriff Receives State Grant

On January 29th, the Crawford County Sheriff Department received approval from the Office of Highway Safety Planning for a Grant applied for by the Department to enforce the 55 MPH speed limit on the Primary and Secondary roadway system of Crawford County.

This project will fund two more officers for the Sheriff Department and the total award is $41,000.00. The Grant pays salaries, fringe benefits, and operational costs as well as additional traffic enforcement equipment for the department.

Sheriff Curt Haas said that this award from the office of Highway Safety Planning will increase the patrols on the Primary and Secondary roadways of Crawford County and help to bring the traffic of the County into compliance with the State's 55 MPH speed limit.

The award now brings the total to four officers of the Crawford County Sheriff Department funded by Grants, two being on PA 416 and two by the Office of Highway Safety Planning.

55th Grayling Winter Sports Festival Toni Trudgeon New Queen

by Joe Schrader

Seventeen year old brown-eyed Toni Trudgeon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Trudgeon, was crowned MISS GRAYLING-1980 at last Saturday night's Winter Pageant extravaganza held at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium. Queen Toni will begin her reign by presiding over the 55th Annual Grayling Winter Sports Carnival spanning the next two weekends and will be formally introduced to the public, along with her 14-member Court, at the Kickoff Dinner-Dance this Thursday evening at the Hotel Shoppenagon.

Miss Trudgeon was crowned by Sue Burr, last year's Miss Grayling, who has represented the community in activities around the state the past twelve months. WQON's Wayne Hindmarsh acted as Master of Ceremonies for Saturday night's fete.

Named first runner-up at the standing room only affair was

Susan Weeber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Palmer, while Sue Nicholas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Nicholas, was named second runner-up.

Miss Trudgeon also shared the Miss Congeniality Award with Coreena Lynn Hall and the new Queen's gymnastics routine earned her the top talent award.

It was a tough task indeed for the five-member judging panel in selecting a winner from the field of fifteen lovely contestants, each displaying excellent talent, poise and personality to complement the swimsuit and evening gown competition. Personality interviews had been conducted earlier Saturday at the Hotel Shoppenagon.

Under the chairmanship of Pageant Director Norma Naour and Joanne Shively, Saturday night's evening of entertainment included an appearance by the Grayling High Stage Band, musical numbers by the AuSable Valley Barber-shoppers and a review of her reign as queen over the past year by Sue Burr.

Miss Trudgeon is a 5'2½" brown-haired Grayling High senior who plans to attend Central Michigan University this fall to pursue a career in elementary education. A part time receptionist-secretary at Cornell Real Estate, Miss Trudgeon includes gymnastics, swimming, biking, water skiing and teamwork activities on her list of hobbies. She is a member

Union Does Not Rule Out Work Stoppage County-Union Reach "Impasse" Call Mediator

by Joe Schrader

In an updated press release issued January 30th, AFSCME (The American Federation of State, County & Municipal Employees), Local 2759, through its Staff Representative Dennis Nauss, said that negotiations over a labor agreement with the county's legal representative, David Sabin, had declared the impasse over the question of bargaining unit recognition, and that negotiations were broken off at approximately 2:25 p.m. last Wednesday afternoon.

No further bargaining sessions were scheduled until Wednesday, February 6th, when State Mediator Robert Rombouts will be in attendance. In a meeting with media representatives late last Wednesday day afternoon, Nauss lashed out at the county's negotiating posture during their eight meetings involving some 47½ hours of talks, labeling it "asinine".

Although there are several unresolved issues, the question of unit recognition appears to be a major stumbling block to progress in reaching a settlement.

And that issue narrows down ever further to the question of whether or not the County job classification of Deputy Clerk is a logical inclusion in the makeup of the bargaining unit. The parties are diametrically opposed on this issue, the union adopting the position the job has always been, and should continue to be, a member of the unit, while the county adopts the opposite position that the job should be excluded.

Nauss indicated the county had previously initiated an agreement with the union to leave the language as is. When contacted, Sabin, negotiator for the county, agreed that such an understanding had been reached at one time, however indicated that agreements on specific contract language are tentative and contingent upon final agreement being reached on all other contract matters.

The recognition issue was highlighted through the filing of a grievance by the union in November over the status of Nancy Krey, now Deputy Clerk, who last summer notified the local of her intent to withdraw from union membership. The labor agreement contained a so-

1979 vs. 1978

City Police Complaints up 24%

by Joe Schrader

While the number of complaints investigated by city police officers increased by 24%, at the same time incidents of major crime showed a decrease in 1979, according to a recently released annual report from Police Chief Pete Stephan.

Police officers recorded 2816 complaints in 1979, compared to 2287 registered the previous year, with traffic and parking violations reflecting the most notable increases. Traffic violations were up 95%, from 113 to 220, while parking violations shot up 47%, from 73 in 1978, to 420 last year.

Stephan indicated that more attention had been devoted to these areas in 1979 in view of the accident incidence along the downtown business loop and subsequent lowering of the speed limits in selected areas.

In addition, with street improvement, including installation of curbing, under way, police have directed more attention to parking infractions in order to facilitate more effective snow plowing activity.

One item of interest Stephan noted was the envelope containment procedure installed by the city, allowing violators to pay fines through the mail vs. a personal visit.

Following an extensive study of business loop traffic last summer, the state agreed to reduce speed limits in selected areas along the route and signs were erected in November.

Another significant increase occurred in fraudulent activity complaints and Stephan noted the majority of these involved check law violations, the incidence up 89%, from 71 in '78 to 134 in 1979. Stephan urged local businesses to exercise diligence when cashing checks, either local or out-of-town, to be certain positive identification is obtained.

WHITE PINE STAMPEDE—Last Saturday's running of the 1980 White Pine Stampede, Michigan's Cross Country longest race, drew a field of almost 200 skiers from far and wide to battle the bitter cold temperatures in the 20 and 50 kilometer events, the latter won this year by Bob Kemp of Prudenville. His winning time was 3:42.27, just ahead of Butch Stockton of Grayling who finished less than five minutes later. David Hayes, also of Grayling, finished third with a time of 3:56.12.

Ann Arbor's Ed Reed copped the shorter, 20 km. race, crossing the finish line in 1:21.36, a scant 28 seconds ahead of Jim O'Karinen of Calumet. David Heme crossed the finish line third.

This year's annual event began Saturday with a Press Breakfast at Grayling's Holiday Inn prior to the 10 o'clock start from Twin Peaks north of Frederic. The affair concluded with an Awards Ceremony in Mancelona where trophies were awarded the winning skiers in each classification.

Of the 192 skiers who started the trek, 180 completed either the 20 km. or longer, 50 km. (32 miles) race routes. (Joe Schrader photos)

A Statement To The People of Crawford County

by Harrison Goodhue

On Thursday, January 30th, the Phil Donahue Show-NBC on Channels 4 & 7 in this area at 9 a.m. on weekdays-presented Carl Bakal, a self appointed critic of charity in the United States who has written a book.

During the show Carl Bakal stated that American Red Cross spends more money on Service to Military Families than it does on Disaster Relief; that American Red Cross has no business spending contributions it collects for charity on seeing that Service people get leaves when family members are ill; or help Veterans get all the benefits the laws of the U.S. provides; and that American Red Cross does not tell the public when it solicits funds that it is going to spend these vast sums on Service to Military Families.

By this statement Mr. Bakal clearly indicates that he is abysmally ignorant of American Red Cross responsibilities, and by telling half truths, thereby avoiding a direct lie, deliberately misleads the public.

First-American Red Cross is not a charitable organization. It is a Service Organization!

Second-American Red Cross Services are mandated by the Congress of the United States; specifically spelled out in the Charter of the American Red Cross passed into law by the Congress of 1881.

The first responsibility of American Red Cross, according to that 1881 Charter, is to render aid and assistance to the members of the Armed Forces of the United States, Veterans and their Families, in Peace and War.

The second responsibility of American Red Cross, according to that 1881 Charter, is to Thomas L. Shavalia, an Out-patient Therapist with North Central Michigan Mental Health Services here in Grayling, has just received word from Pergamon Press, Ltd., that an article he wrote has been accepted for publication. The article grew out of a year-long effort to establish a computerized information retrieval system at Eastern Michigan University. The system, the only one of its kind, is designed to retrieve information on behavior therapy outcome studies. This is seen as an innovation in the field of behavior therapy. The article is due to be published soon in the Journal of Behavior Therapy and Experimental Psychiatry.

"Weigh-In" To Assist Special Olympics

Area 4 Special Olympics will be holding its annual "Weigh-In" in the Grayling area on Feb. 8th and 9th. During this time, area residents will be asked to step on the scales and donate a penny-a-pound to the local Special Olympics program.

Weigh-In stations will be set up at the Grayling A & P and Glen's Market. Manning the scales will be volunteers from the Grayling RSVP. During this same period, Weigh-Ins will also be going in other communities throughout the area.

Money raised through this effort will be used to support the athletic programs for the mentally handicapped citizens in Crawford, Ogemaw, Oscoda and Roscommon counties. Approximately 150 Olympians participate in the program throughout the year, with about 30 of them residing in Crawford County. These athletes participate in a variety of activities sponsored by Special Olympics.

These include the recently held North Michigan Winter Olympics, the upcoming Michigan Regional Winter Olympics and the COOR Area Winter Games which all Resource Room students in the Grayling schools will be invited to attend. Besides the winter program offered to the Olympians, Area 4 also offers a wide variety of team sports and summer games.

Special Olympics is a non-profit organization run by volunteers and receives no funds from state agencies or school districts. Money to support these programs must be raised through fund raisers.

Basketball

Tobin, Bill Roach and Mike Walsh allowing Gaylord to ease into a 20-16 lead at the intermission.

Both squads exchanged baskets throughout most of the 3rd quarter when, with just 1:25 left, a 3-point play by Roach sent Grayling ahead, 31-30. Two free throws by Junttila upped the advantage to 33-30 but Gaylord recaptured the lead with five straight unanswered points before the period ended.

Then 6'6" Blue Devil center Joe Andrews took over, tossing in ten points the final quarter, and that, combined with Grayling's inability to get the big basket when it was needed, spelled doom for the scrappy Vikes.

Both clubs were cool from the floor, Grayling hit on 20 of 67 field goal attempts (30%) and the Blue Devils sank just 20 of 27 for 27%. "The big difference was at the free throw line," Coach "Butch" Hayes commented afterward. And he was so right. The Vikes hit on nine of eleven charity tosses, an outstanding percentage, but Gaylord hit 13-five more. And what was the margin of difference in the game again?

Hayes said his players deserved plenty of credit for their excellent defensive play, holding Gaylord to just 54 points. "We just couldn't get off the number of shots we wanted to," he added, "and our shooting percentage was off on the ones we did get."

Bill Roach led the Viking offensive attack with 15 points while Junttila joined him in double figures with ten. Walsh and Tobin chipped in with six apiece, Todd Dunkley and Scott Hale hit for four each and Ken Helsel and Mike Chrisman rounded out the scoring with two points apiece.

Andrews topped the Gaylord scoring with 17 points, Steve Glasser was close behind with 15, Joe Scott added 9, Dave Becker 8, and Eric Kehler and Jerome Garrett chipped in with two each.

Gaylord will square off against Cheboygan this Friday, a game the Vikes will be watching closely. But the Vikes better first aim their attention at Charlevoix, a team that's been playing tough ball the past few weeks-one more slip and Grayling can pretty much kiss the conference title goodbye.

From Our Corner ...

There are days...and this was one of them...that we have to wonder if we do have any readership for our column...especially concerning our procedure of running "Letters to the Editor" in the Avalanche...Monday morning we had to turn down two persons who wished to have their letters published in this week's issue...

For the umpteenth time we will try again to let our readers know how we set deadlines, and more important letters that are printed in the paper...

We reserve a cut off for the letter at no later than Friday prior to the next week's edition...this gives us time to read them over and to decide if they are in good taste and have merit to run in the Avalanche.

There are times, because of length of a letter, we reserve the right to hold back even those with merit, due to the setting time and space available, until the following week.

Letters to the Editor is a column to be used by our readership to voice their opinion concerning the well being of our area and not a personal vendetta against a person or persons...it may be pro or con with our local government, or state and national, but no personalities...

While we are on the letter bit we will reiterate from last week's column we do not even consider a letter that is not signed by the person with an address and phone number so we can check to verify its authenticity.

We urge our readers to use this column, we only ask they follow our procedure so that both of us will not be sued...which is common place these days...in other words think before you jump...it will save you and I both time...

We got pie on our face...following last week's edition we were asked by Chuck Stoddard if we knew where Mt. Frederic was, dumb as we said sure it's just north of Frederic, he said then why don't you edit the stories in the Avalanche? We were still dumb, and asked why he made that statement...his reply...in the article about this year's White Pine Stampede we had Mt. Frederic just north of Grayling...

Now that is just what we need...we always figured we had a few friends in Frederic so when we dropped in up there we would have someone to visit with...now we're going to have our doubts...

We did thank Chuck for letting us know about our blooper...now if Jack and Doris missed that edition we are all right...

This past weekend was just beautiful...the cold and the snow we have stayed around for all the winter sports enthusiasts (skis and motors) to enjoy a fun filled weekend...the 4th running of the White Pine Stampede was highly successful with 192 aspirants taking part in the race from Mt. Frederic to Mt. Mancelona...on Saturday night a new queen was chosen to represent Grayling in 1980 with the selection of lovely Toni Trudgeon at the pageant at the Joseph Stripe Auditorium before a packed house...now for the next two weekends, Grayling will host the 55th annual Winter Sports Festivals...the Grand-daddy of all winter festivals in Michigan...

An invitation from our corner...if you enjoy the great outdoors for fun and frolic...plan on being in Grayling the next two weekends...

Another idle thought...not being from Grayling originally, but from a town near by, we have been wondering since attending last Friday's game where the white went from Grayling High's colors...when we first looked out at the cheerleaders we thought they were wearing our Alma Mater's colors...Lucky Strike's green went to war back in the 1940's...where did Grayling's white go? Just a thought.

This week has been a humbug for the ole fella...just haven't been able to get our stuff together...maybe it is because we're looking forward to the first of March when we take a trip to see our Nevada family...anyway, this just about takes care of this week's corner...have a nice weekend, we know you will if you are in Grayling for all the festivities...

It's winter carnival time in Michigan.

And for the 32nd consecutive year this northern Michigan community of Grayling is bracing itself for an influx of visitors that will increase its weekend population many fold.

More than 6,000 winter sports enthusiasts and sightseers are expected to descend on the town for the annual Grayling Winter Sports Carnival Feb. 9-10.

The Grayling Vikings and the Boyne City Ramblers continued in a tie for the leadership of the Northern Class C. Conference as Grayling dropped the Pellston Hornets here Friday night, 75 to 57 and the Ramblers downed the East Jordan Red Devils 72 to 53 at East Jordan the same night.

Grayling High School's green and white rode triumphant over the orange and black of West Branch Tuesday night as both teams took victories from their opponents. The first team won a 14-12 victory that wasn't as close as the score sounds, and the Reserves chalked up a shut-out as they won 24-0.

The Lumberjacks barely escaped defeat last Saturday night at the hands of the Roscommon Ramblers. The final score was 41 to 35 in an overtime, after a 33-33 tie at the game's end. The Lumberjacks met their first defeat of the season at the hands of the East Jordan Cannors last night by a 22-26 count at East Jordan.

J.E. Brady and son Joe spent Sunday in Saginaw on business. It is reported that the school building at Wolverine burned this morning.

Farnham Matson left Sunday to spend a few days in Detroit on business. He was accompanied to Royal Oak by his aunt, Mrs. Elizabeth Heenan, who has been visiting at the Matson home for the past few weeks.

C.J. McNamara left Monday for Detroit, where he attended a convention of State Rexall men at the Statler Hotel. He was accompanied by James Gidley, of East Jordan.

Miss Dorothy Roberts and Miss Dagmar Juhl are attending the Jackson Commercial school.

Twenty-two of those who have taken part in the work at the Winter Sports Park enjoyed an oyster stew at the Clubhouse at the Park last Thursday night. It was much enjoyed.

Mrs. Grant Thompson and Mrs. Floyd McClain received prizes when several ladies met at the home of Mrs. W.J. Heric last Thursday night to sew. A pot luck lunch was served.

After the temperature hovered below zero all day Wednesday, during the following morning it dropped to 38 below, according to the thermometer at the hatchery. At the reservation it reached 32 below. Today continues cold and even lower temperatures tonight may not be a poor guess. Brrrrr!

As last Friday, February 2nd, was a sunshiny day, the groundhog without a doubt saw his shadow. Just six more weeks of cold weather.

Monday evening, Feb. 5th a few Maple Forest neighbors surprised Alfred Hummel, the occasion being his birthday. All enjoyed visiting and the delicious lunch served at midnight.

All trains on the M. & N.E.R.R. were abandoned Monday on account of the storm.

The fiercest storm of the year reached Grayling about 1 o'clock Sunday morning. It was nearly a hurricane from the east with snow, which continued nearly all day Monday.

If the ground hog didn't see his shadow last Thursday it was because he couldn't get out of his hole through the snow and ice. It was a sunshiny day.

Married Sunday, Feb. 5th, 1911, Mr. Axel Christenson to Miss Mabel Moon, by Dr. Jas. Baer, Justice of the Peace. After the wedding ceremony the young couple returned to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H.E. Moon, where a sumptuous five-course dinner was served.

The greenhouse which was projected last fall by J.H. Cook is no longer a project, but a fixed institution for our village, and is now doing business.

Beaver Creek—Master Willie Love, 12 years old, is the champion chore boy. While his father, John A. Love, has been in bed for the past ten days, Willie has taken care of 35 head of stock, principally horses and cattle. He has fed and watered the stock, cleaned the stable and done other chores, and goes around singing, happy as a lark.

What other boy at that age can do as much? John is now being treated by Dr. Insley for stomach troubles which have been bothering him for the last ten years. He seems to be improving slowly at this writing. Miss Minnie Love was called home by the sudden illness of her father.

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

When Christians Fail Galatians 6:1

There are no perfect Christians who never fail or do anything wrong. The perfection of a Christian rests upon his faith in the finished work of Jesus Christ for his sins. When a Christian sins other Christians have a responsibility to help that one back to the right path.

"Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted." Gal. 6:1. First, one must be spiritual before he is capable of helping an erring brother. One is not spiritual who does not reflect the fruit of the Spirit in his daily life. Remember, "...the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance." Gal. 5:22, 23. Second, we show meekness toward an erring Christian, not arrogance or pride. Third, all of us are capable of the same sin found in an erring brother. Therefore, we must be careful in helping others that we are not tempted to fall into the same sin.

Many times a brother falls into sin because other Christians do not try to help him in times of trying circumstances. "Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. It is better to give people food when they are starving than to visit them in jail for stealing. It is wrong for a Christian to feel he is more spiritual or mature than the Christian he is helping. This kind of spiritual superiority is based upon self-deception. "For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself." Verse 3.

It is wrong to compare ourselves with others to justify ourselves. As Christians we are to compare ourselves with God's Word and our own past. We should never try to prove spiritual superiority or inferiority by comparison with others. "But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another." Verse 4.

The best way to help others is to do our own part well. For example, if three men are loading a log on a truck, the best help each can give the others is to do his own job well. "For every man shall bear his own burden." Verse 5.

If all of us who call ourselves Christians would spend more energy trying to do the work God has given us to do, and less energy criticizing the failure of others beside us, we could all go forward for Christ. If you cannot work with others in your church, find a church where you can. If you can't find such a church go to the mirror and look at the problem. Your best mirror is your Bible. (adv.)

News of Good Things Growing...

Cheeses are gaining in popularity. They are high in protein, require no preparation and have the versatility of combining with many other foods for delicious salads, soups, main dishes and desserts.

There's no limit to the ways cheese can be used, from casseroles to cheese cakes. There are some cheeses, however, which are meant to be eaten as is, or simply matched with fresh fruits.

Appetizers are a promise of good foods to come, and perfect starters are slices of brick cheese served on Michigan apple slices or Michigan pears with Cheddar or Muenster cheese. For a busy Saturday lunch treat, lightly butter a slice of brown bread, cover generously with hot Michigan baked beans and a thick layer of shredded Cheddar cheese. Broil slowly until cheese melts, then top with crisp bacon slices.

Michigan's natural cheese production totals about 33 million pounds each year, with American cheese amounting to two-thirds of this total, according to the Michigan Department of Agriculture. Cheese makers in our state produce Muenster, Cheddar, brick, Mozzarella and other Italian cheeses, cream and farmer cheeses, among others. Cottage cheese production amounts to about 56 million pounds annually.

Each person in the U.S. consumes about 18 pounds of cheese each year. Considering cheesemaking requires 10 pounds of whole milk to make about one pound of cheese, this industry definitely has a stabilizing affect on the dairy industry.

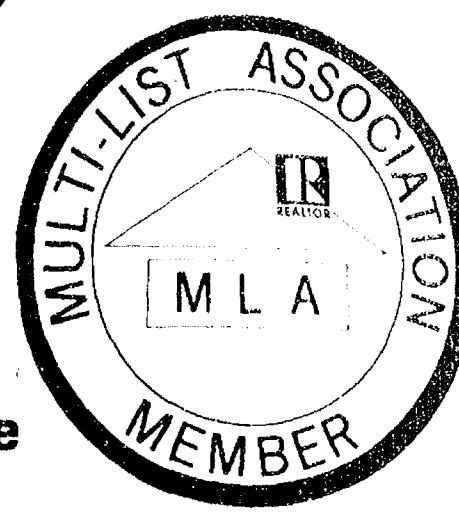

Cheese is aged from 60 days to a year or more, depending on the flavor development desired. Aging and the quality characteristics are key factors in determining price.

There is an infinite variety of cheese products including shredded, grated, wheels, cylinders, bricks, cartons, pears, balls or pear rectangles, cups and jars. In color, cheese ranges from purest white to deepest orange, with shades of yellow and marbled blues and greens. As for flavors, these, too, range from the mildest cream cheese to robust Romano and Limburger. All varieties of natural cheese should be served at room temperature to enjoy the fullest flavor and texture.

Essay Contest Winner

ESSAY WINNERS--Winners were announced last week in the "America And Me" essay contest sponsored by the Farm Bureau Insurance Group. Posing here with Middle School 6th grade teacher Russell Phillips are (left to right): Rae Ann McEvers (3rd place), Teresa M. Barber (First Prize) and Alice F. Matyn (2nd place). Teresa's first place essay will advance to statewide competition where the top ten winners in the state will be named. (Joe Schrader photo)

I'm proud to be an American because America has given me the choices of how to live my life freely. To me, freedom means to be able to live your own life the way you choose; having the options of religion, a career, an education, voting, where to live, and whether or not to get married and have a family. These are just a few of the things that enable Americans to be free.

One important choice of freedom is the option of religion and being able to choose the religion of your preference. Choosing a religion and putting your beliefs into that religion is a very important part of many Americans lives.

Another important liberty open to Americans is the choice of an education and profession. When in high school, most people select the career they would like to pursue so they know how long to go to college & what courses to take. Choosing an occupation is also a very important part of many Americans lives.

Americans also enjoy the right to get married, have a family, how to raise their family if they choose to have one, and the best place to raise their family. Another question of having a family is how many children to have. Many people who can not have children of their own can adopt children.

One of the most important rights that Americans have is the right to vote and have a voice in the federal, state, and local government. Americans over the age of eighteen can vote for government. Americans over the age of eighteen can vote for government officials who will represent them in civil matters. Although the right to vote is sometimes abused, most people use it as an attempt to make the United States a better place to live.

All of these reasons and many more are proof of the strong belief in freedom and liberty under law. It has taken many years, lots of courage and many people wanting to be free, to make the United States a strong and free nation that will last for many years to come. This is why many people are proud to be Americans living in the United States.

I think that being an American and having an American heritage is very special and we all should be proud to have the heritage of our forefathers and to live in such a nation as the United States.

Baby Shower

Mrs. Marcia Rutter was the guest of honor at a baby shower on Sunday, January 27, 1980, at the home of Cheryl Millikin. Co-hostess was Susan McCurdy. Marcia received many lovely gifts. The hostesses presented her with a corsage made of baby socks. Twenty guests enjoyed the salad buffet luncheon and a cake made by Cheryl. The cake was topped with a baby complete with diapers.

Parents are Still Going Strong

The weekly parent discussion groups, under the direction of Dennis Rau, are still going strong every Monday night from 7:00-9:00 p.m. at the Holiday Inn in Grayling.

This group is still open to all parents and expectant parents of Crawford County and we would like to extend an informal invitation to parents to drop in and see what the group has to offer.

Since the discussion group is on-going and open to all parents; most of the parents who attend do so at their convenience and the number of times they participate varies with their personal interests and concerns.

This group is offered free of charge and has been meeting every Monday since February, 1979. The book, "Parents are Teachers", by Wesley Becker is currently being used as well as group discussions dealing with parenting skills applied to each individual situation.

Support, encouragement and ideas from parents like you is what our group is all about. So come join us this Monday.

For more information contact: Debra Larson, parent consultant, at 348-7891 or Bill Morford, group facilitator at 348-4661.

4-H News

Crawford County 4-H is looking for kids to raise Retriever puppies to be Leader dogs for the blind. The puppies are free, and the Grayling Lions' Club will be responsible for food and all medical needs for two of the pups.

Mrs. Nancy Hatfield will be in charge of the 4-H Club and will meet with anyone wanting a dog. The child will raise the puppy for one year. At the end of that time, the pup will be sent to a school in Rochester, Mi. for more extensive training. If you're interested and would like more information, contact the Cooperative Extension Office at 348-5123 or Mrs. Nancy Hatfield after 5:30 at 348-9769.

Came Close

"Did you ever get pinched for going too fast?"
"No," was the reply, "but I've been slapped a few times."

Vikingland Happenings

by Joelyn LaChappelle and Jane Stamm

Mr. Hayes has been chosen as Teacher of the Month for the months of December and January. Butch Hayes graduated from Grayling High School in 1969. He attended college at Central Michigan University majoring in physical education and biology.

Mr. Hayes, who has been teaching at GHS for seven years, teaches gym, botany, genetics, natural science, health, biology and weight training. He also coaches the Varsity basketball team.

Mr. Hayes is very popular among the students. He not only has been chosen for teacher of the month but he has also been chosen Teacher of the Year for the past two years.

Because of all the difficulties with last years school millage alot of activities had to be eliminated. One of which was the spectator bus to away games. The Student Council of GHS is helping to support a spectator bus for high school students. The cost will be shared by the students who ride the bus and Student Council themselves. Having a spectator bus not only saves gas, but also helps promote spirit throughout school.

First semester exams are finally over. The National Honor Society took a survey after each exam from all the students. The students were asked to write down how they felt about each course and what they liked and disliked about the class. Reasoning for this was, hopefully, for teachers to better understand their teaching.

Lawmakers are back at work again

RICHARD MILLIMAN

AS THE NEW year dawns, the cry of the lawmaker is heard across the land, as governments of all sizes—federal, state and local—crank up their legislative apparatus for their annual tussles with problems and opportunities.

President Carter provides his "State of the Union" message. Governors offer their "state of the state" messages. Local leaders file their own "state of the city, or the county, or the township, or the school district" messages.

Generally, these leaders peer at the past with pride (that is, if they have been involved in producing the past), and point to the future with concern yet confidence.

MICHIGAN'S Gov. Milliken may have gone a little overboard this year. Taking advantage of the turn of the decade, he looked back at the 1970s, and looked forward to the 1980s. His "state of the state" message to the Michigan legislature filled a 118-page booklet, complete with pictures.

He pointed out his message offered "350 specific administrative or legislative steps we should take this year." That's a lot of steps in any year for any government.

It'll be a tough year in Lansing, too. Gov. Milliken, a Republican, and House Speaker Bobby Crim, a Democrat, agree on that point.

Said the governor in his message: "The budget I will present will be a constrained budget, reflecting some tough decisions and actual elimination of some state programs. At the same time, it will include new initiatives reflecting my commitment to finding more efficient ways to serve the people of Michigan."

Speaker Crim, in an interview, predicted a deficit of $250-300 million if all state services continued at present levels, and pointed out: "We will have to cut deeply into programs, reassess our priorities, and in some cases eliminate entire programs. This will be a difficult year for all of us."

We shall have to wait and see, of course, just how many present state programs and state services are eliminated or reduced—by a cost-conscious governor and legislator. Past performance indicates the cut will not be immense.

DOWN IN WASHINGTON, members of the House and Senate are ready, too, to grapple with today's problems and tomorrow's agenda. The flow of ideas and words is immense there, too. In the 1977-78 Congress, for example, more than 25,000 bills were introduced in Congress; thankfully less than 2 percent were adopted.

In different ways, yet in similar ways, local governments—cities, counties, townships—tackle similar issues. At local levels of government as at state and national levels, members of legislative bodies end up being the butt of criticism—frequently, with some justification.

Lingg Brewer, who now is Ingham County clerk but formerly was in the county legislative body as a Commissioner, added some perspective to the entire legislative process in a recent published comment.

"I WON'T SAY that I sleep better at night because the Ingham County Board of Commissioner is at work," Brewer said.

"Sometimes I don't sleep at all just because they are at work."

"The Board of Commissioners can be slow, mean, unruly and bullheaded. However, if they were entirely sensible, they probably wouldn't have run for office in the first place."

The same shoe might fit in Lansing and Washington, and in city halls and county courthouses across the nation.

IT WAS interesting to see the public endorsement of Sen. Ted Kennedy for president coming from Douglas Fraser, president of the United Automobile Workers.

Fraser said, of course, his Kennedy endorsement was a personal thing, and shouldn't indicate how his gigantic union feels.

This is the same Douglas Fraser, incidentally, who worked hand in glove with the Carter administration to push the Chrysler aid package through a reluctant congress, with the welfare of thousands of his UAW members ever in mind.

It was considerate of Mr. Fraser to permit the ink to dry on President Carter's signature on the Chrysler aid program before he jumped on the Kennedy bandwagon. But, that's politics, I guess.

Michigan Mirror

By Warren M. Hoyt
Tax Cut Proposal May Appear On November Ballot

The real test as to whether the citizens of the state of Michigan are satisfied with the Headlee tax limitation amendment of 1978 will be their reaction to a new proposed amendment to cut property taxes by 60 percent.

Michigan voters chose the tax limitation approach to halt governmental growth and spending during the 1978 general election rather than the unknown radical tax cut proposal.

It was also believed at the time, that if the tax limitation amendment did not do the job and halt government spending, the tax cut proposal would be back before the voters.

This appears to be the case with a new effort to get that proposal back before the voters in November.

Shiawassee County Drain Commissioner Robert Tisch, author of the previous proposal, is at it again and has started circulating petitions to get the proposal on the ballot.

The proposed amendment would out local property taxes by about $1.6 billion and require the state to reimburse schools and local governments for most of that loss.

The proposal would cut property tax assessments by 50 percent to provide further tax exemptions for persons over age 62, prohibit new taxes on homes, limit increases in annual property assessments on homes and agricultural property to 2.5 percent and require a vote in a general election to impose new or increased taxes.

The state would be required to reimburse local units for all revenue loss except on taxes levied to pay building project bonds.

In announcing the petition drive, Tisch said the proposal would not require local governments to cut their operations as local taxes are cut because people are upset with the Legislature while having confidence in local government.

Tisch predicted his plan will gain more support because people are tired of big government, high taxes and government's view that it must always provide expensive new programs.

Other parts of the proposal include retaining all tax credit and rebate programs currently in tax law, setting taxes on new residential construction and agricultural construction as if they had been built in 1978, plus inflation, and exempting from property taxes the home-steads and rental housings of persons with taxable income of under $5,000.

Rep. Roy Smith (R-Ypsilanti), a member of the Legislature proposing a tax shift from property taxes to income taxes, said a problem with the new Tisch plan is the exemption from any new taxes on homes built after the amendment is adopted. He said the amendment appears to permit taxing only the land upon which the residence would sit.

To get the amendment on the ballot, about 286,700 valid signatures are needed. Tisch said he hopes to collect over half a million signatures before presenting the petitions.

Free Tuition For Senior Citizens

Final legislative approval has been given to a bill permitting governing boards of community and junior colleges to waive tuition for senior citizens.

Trustees of the colleges can waive tuition requirements for any student, age 60 or older, who has graduated high school and meet the other requirements of the college.

Permitting the waiver is voluntary, but critics said political pressures will ensure all colleges allow the waiver.

There is no estimate on what the waiver could cost, but it is projected the state may have to make up losses to colleges through other appropriations.

"Sonlight" will be featured at the 8:00 p.m. worship service Saturday evening, February 9th and at the 11:00 a.m. worship service Sunday, February 10th, at Mt. Hope Lutheran Church-Spruce and Vine. There will also be a very special Sunday School hour at 9:30 a.m. Sunday morning, February 10th.

Steve and Cheri Scheer are "Sonlight". They simply exude enthusiasm for their Lord and present the love of Jesus in a fascinating manner. Their background is in Christian Education and Parish Youth Work.

Steve and Cheri have been traveling for Sonshine Ministries sharing the vision of the Retreat Center and also presenting a program of Word and Song and a delightful "Sonnet" production. The "Sonnets" are the hand puppets that Steve and Cheri use to tell the Gospel message to children and adults as well. The Sonnets have unique voices and personalities. Some of the music which the Sonnets present is taped, while much of the music and dialogue is done live. The songs, dialogue and design for the Sonnets are all original and were created by the Sonshine Ministry members.

Everyone is invited.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters Receive Episcopal Grant

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Crawford County has received a grant of $1,000.00 from St. Francis Episcopal Church and the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan to assist in the establishment of a viable Big Brothers/Big Sisters program in Crawford County.

Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Crawford County is a chartered non-profit organization dedicated to providing adult role examples to children who have lost one parent through either death, divorce or serious illness. This adult is neither a parent substitute or a disciplinarian. A Big Brother/Big Sister is simply an adult friend of the child.

This grant will be used for general expenses with $100.00 being reserved to organize a presentation to assist in perpetuating the program. The final paragraph of the letter accompanying the grant reads in part "Crawford County has many problems and we do not have all the answers. We do, however, as a congregation want to give ourselves away and to make known our commitment to this community. We believe our involvement is contagious and, by giving ourselves, others will catch this same spirit—"

Bob Harrington, Director, states that Big Brothers/Big Sisters of Crawford County is progressing on schedule.

There is a continuing need for concerned adults of the community to volunteer as Big Brothers and Big Sisters. Volunteers can receive more information by contacting Bob at the Youth Services Bureau offices at 308 Cedar Street, Grayling, Michigan or by calling 348-7702.

Statement

to that 1881 Charter, is to render aid and sustenance-including food, clothing, shelter and medical care-to the victims of natural or man made disasters such as hurricanes, tornados, floods and fires-until normal services can be restored.

The third mandated charge to American Red Cross by the Congress is to determine what steps to take, and to take such steps, to prevent and minimize death and maiming to the victims of such disasters.

And, the Congress of the United States charged the American Red Cross to raise all the monies needed to fulfill these lawful mandates by contribution from the public. No Federal, State, or Local funds or taxes, are at any time to be provided to American Red Cross to do it's mandated job.

Out of these lawful requirements came the four primary humanitarian Services of American Red Cross:

1. SAF&V-Services to the Armed Forces and Veterans and their Families. Annual cost about $45 million, just under 30% of the Red Cross budget nationally.

2. Immediate Disaster Relief. Annual cost about $35 million, about 22% of the annual budget.

3. Safety Services-Instruction in Standard First Aid, Advanced First Aid, CPR, Swimming, Boating Safety, etc. Annual cost about $18 million, about 10% of the annual budget.

4. Blood Bank Services-supplies about 60% of the Nation's need for human blood-free because it is given freely. The cost of drawing, processing, storing and redistributing the blood is offset by a fee charged Hospitals who in turn charge the patient for this collection and re-distribution expense.

American Red Cross Blood Service is self-sustaining, but non-profit operation, and the fee charged is determined by local Volunteer Blood Center Directors responsible for each separate local Regional Blood Center.

American Red Cross is proud to accept responsibility for spending almost 30 cents of every dollar it collects on SAF&V Services. It is positive proof that it is achieving the responsibility mandated by Congress.

As to the charge by Mr. Bakal that American Red Cross conceals it's work with Service to the Armed Forces and Veterans in fund appeals, that is a down right lie. American Red Cross, in all it's promotional material, features SAF&V, Disaster Relief, Blood Services and Safety Training.

Certainly you good local people of Crawford County, if you read our appeals for funds, or heard them over local radio, heard about all of the vital humanitarian Services of American Red Cross, the details of our local Chapter expenditures on each, and the National expense in every phase of these lawfully mandated Services, that Red Cross, and only Red Cross, provides.

I regret that an article such as this needs to be published.

But I more deeply regret that a responsible press—who beats it's chest as the defender of our freedoms and liberties, can be so irresponsible as to present a charlatan who is ignorant of well known public facts, and who deliberately misleads to be sensational and help sell his book.

And for you, Mr. Donahue, not to know the facts and background of American Red Cross and to let your show be so mis-used-For Shame!

Editors Mailbox

Dear Editor:

I read with interest the story of Jasper Courtney the young Shanty Boy written by Claudia Elmasian. I being an old lumber jack it brought back many memories of the weird tales the old lumber jacks used to tell.

She writes that on one real cold night, this young Shanty boy took his lantern and started for Grayling. But on the way he mistook the barely frozen river for a path that led to town. He fell through the ice and he floated about a mile down stream under the ice. And when they found his body in the spring he had a smile on his face and his hand was still clenched around the lantern.

However, what she forgot to say was that the smile on his face was because the lantern was still lit.

I sincerely hope that our county and city Fathers and Mothers will borrow this young Shanty boy's Lantern and light our way to a better 1980.

called "Agency Shop" provision which calls for the payment of a "service charge" from an employee who elects not to join, or withdraws from, the union. AF-SCME has asked the county to remove Mrs. Kray from the job because she has refused to pay the fee.

While the union has filed for arbitration in the matter, Sabin injected the question of timeliness in the filing of the grievance. The grievance was apparently filed in November of 1979, too late (the county says) to be considered valid under a contract clause which imposes a 10 day statute of limitation from the date of the alleged contract violation.

Other issues which still remain obstacles in negotiations include the arbitration clause and economic issues. The union wants the arbitration provision kept intact, calling for a final and binding decision on contract disputes from an arbitrator selected from lists provided by the American Arbitration Association, with the cost shared by the parties. The county has proposed that some disputes be resolved through use of a third party, others resolved in the courts, with the cost borne by the party seeking relief.

On the economic issue, Nauss attacked the county's position that no money is available for wage increases. He charged that money budgeted by the county for union negotiations ($11,000) and pending arbitration and litigation will exceed the cost of the union's original wage offer, and accused the county of "game playing." The union has asked for a 65 cents per hour across the board increase in a one year agreement and a boost of from 15 cents to 38 cents per mile car allowance.

In response to a reporter's question concerning options the union has if a contract settlement is not reached, Nauss indicated the local was "undecided", and did not rule out "refusing to work without a contract," or strike action, a move prohibited by State statute. Further, he said the local membership supported the union's position that Mrs. Kray be dismissed.

ACROSS FROM A & P.

To the Citizens of Crawford County....

The present contract dispute between Crawford County and AFSCME, which represents County Courthouse employees, has received considerable media coverage in recent weeks. This coverage includes a January 30, 1980 press conference called by the AFSCME representative at which he accused the County Board of taking "asinine positions," wasting tax dollars, and trying to "break the union." Whether this language was meant to be inflammatory and create hostility and suspicions, or whether it was simply an undignified exercise in theatrics I can't say. As Chairman of the County Negotiating Team, however, I now feel obligated to respond to these accusations, clarify the board's position, and hopefully defuse the rumors which are making our employer-employee relations so strained.

The major areas of disagreement are: arbitration, make up of the bargaining unit, and economics.

ARBITRATION: The county fully recognizes the mutual need for a forum whereby employer-employee disputes may be settled. The present disagreement is only over what that forum shall be, and how and by whom it shall be financed.

The county has suggested alternative approaches to the settlement of disputes, such as the courts, which are already heavily funded by local tax dollars. The county also suggested a compromise proposal which utilized the courts for factual disputes, and a three-person panel, mutually chosen from our geographical area, for settlement of contractual disputes.

In an attempt to discourage the frivolous use of expensive arbitration by either party, the county suggested that the party initiating arbitration absorb the cost, then alternately suggested that the party losing arbitration pay the tab. All alternatives and suggestions were promptly rejected by the AFSCME representative.

The union continues to demand that, regardless of which party is proven right, both parties bear the cost of the proof. Typical cost of their variety of arbitration is $1,000 per day-per party. While a well-heeled national labor organization may be able to afford this, Crawford County cannot. As a result, for seven years Crawford County has consistently conceded defeat in every grievance case ever presented by any county employee. At roughly $1,000 per complaint, the county could not afford to pursue a final determination. The only "tool of justice" open to it was priced beyond the ability to pay. Crawford County couldn't afford to win! The world's fastest runner cannot win the gold medal if he can't afford to enter the race; and a wronged party cannot win a judgement if he can't afford to go to court.

This board has insisted that this inequity be resolved. If this insistence is "asinine" and violates "widely accepted union principles," we apologize for being "asinine" and unorthodox. But we are Crawford County not Wayne, Oakland, and Macomb. We've refused to continue to play sand-lot ball by World Series rules. We are asking that there be rules, but that the rules of the game, and the cost of the rules, be tailored to fit both teams.

BARGAINING UNIT: The disagreement over which employees should be included in the AFSCME bargaining unit, and which should be excluded, has become very unpleasant. So unpleasant that a very competent employee's job is hanging in the balance.

The county maintains that appointed officials, or sworn deputies of elected officials, are exempt from inclusion in a bargaining unit comprised of regular line employees. That is because these officials are not regular employees—a distinction which is upheld by Michigan Statutes. They take an oath of office, perform supervisory and statutory duties for which they are legally accountable, and are governed by laws which at times actually contradict the provision of the union agreement.

In our Sheriff Department, the Undersheriff, who is an appointed official in an identical capacity, is specifically excluded from the bargaining unit for the above-mentioned reasons. In fact, even the shift commanders are separated from the deputies' bargaining unit and negotiated with separately. The county is asking that this kind of logic be applied when we categorize courthouse employees. We want to eliminate the impossible situation which has demanded that the county govern its appointed officials by two contradictory sets of rules.

To the charge that this logic is "union busting", I will only point out that the principle is in operation twenty yards away at the Sheriff Department, and our Teamster's local is alive and well.

ECONOMICS: The union has requested a 65 cent per hour wage increase across the board, plus cost of living. The county has granted no increase for 1980, but has assured an opening clause in this contract for salary negotiations for next year. That's a hard, unpopular position, and we know this. I'm sure Chrysler employees didn't relish the benefit REDUCTIONS they were forced to accept to keep their employer afloat, and I'm sure the UAW didn't relish agreeing to them. But it was done, because it was clear that the financial stability of Chrysler employees was only as secure as the financial stability of Chrysler Corporation. It's common sense. Crawford County's layoffs in 1979 proved this. This Board of Commissioners may not be able to grant a pay raise today, but we're doing all we can to assure that jobs still exist tomorrow, and that our laid-off employees are recalled to work as soon as possible. The most recent example of this occurred five weeks ago when the board pledged nearly $13,000 in unbudgeted monies, nearly wiping out an already inadequate contingency fund, to put a laid-off member of the AFSCME unit back to work full time. While this expenditure has been conveniently overlooked throughout our negotiations, I see it as significant, and a true indication of the concern this county has for its employees.

Much has been made of pay raises which were granted to elected and appointed officials and department heads this year. The reason is easily explained, and the board is not ashamed of the judgement it made. A survey of salaries in our 9 county region showed that Crawford County officials were paid below area standards, & that our line employees were well in line with, and often above, both regional and Crawford County standards. The inequities were obvious enough to prompt the board to "sack" the 1980 budget for funds to bring the "underpaid" people more closely in line with area standards. We did what we could to establish equity, and when the taxpayer dollars were exhausted there were no more.

This board cannot spend what does not exist. It cannot, on behalf of the taxpayers of this county, enter into agreements which impose standards totally incompatible with its circumstances. To do so WOULD prove us not only "asinine", unfair to employees and taxpayers alike, but down right irresponsible.

Mid-Mitten Chapter met at the Roscommon High School Choral Room on Wednesday, January 30th, for their weekly rehearsal. Much work was done on competition songs preparing for our first coaching session with Fred Kienitz. This will be held Sunday, February 3rd, at the Choral Room between the hours of 1-6. Hopefully everyone will be able to attend this very important session.

We want to thank all the people who worked on our foolish "Gong Show", the contestants for being part of the entertainment, the Judges, and the Emcee. A really big thank you to the public who attended which made our evening a big success for us. Our aim was to provide some form of entertainment during the Tip-Up-Town festivities.

Information has been received on our 1980 competition weekend which will be held May 2-4 in London, Ontario, Canada. It will feature a Hawaiian theme—"Island Fantasy." We will be staying at either the Holiday Inn Tower or the Holiday Inn, Centre with competition being held at Beal Auditorium.

We are looking forward already to this coming event.

Attend the Church of Your Choice

When it gets too much

A President of the United States in the middle of a war that nobody liked turned to prayer. Abraham Lincoln explained simply that he had been driven to his knees many times by the knowledge that his own strength, and that of all around him, was insufficient.

Sometimes we have to pray! It gets too much

And don't feel awkward if you're not used to it. Folks before you have found that life gets too much. They have been driven to their knees — and turned to God — believing there was something better ahead.

Your worst day could become your best! Why not check it out in church? What Abe Lincoln was driven to may be what your soul needs, hungers for.

When it gets too much — there's a better way ahead.

Family Planning Program Here

The District No. 1 Health Dept. will be conducting a Family Planning program day each month beginning in February, said Beverly Wagoner, Health Educator for the district. Our goal is to offer information about family planning methods using visual aids and one-to-one discussions, and clients will also be able to renew prescriptions and sign up, if eligible, for family planning services, she said.

This new program will offer all persons, male and female, the opportunity to learn some facts about family planning. Mrs. Wagoner said, "When a person has an understanding of what family planning is all about, and has the correct information about family planning methods, then that person can make a choice as to what is best for her or him."

In Grayling, the third Tuesday of each month, 8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m. is Family Planning day beginning February 18.

For further information, call your Health Department.

Grayling Elementary At Work Again

Children from 1st through 5th grade will again be selling Raffle Tickets for a beautiful hand made quilt purchased from the Grayling Senior Citizens Center.

Because of your terrific support last year, we met our goal and were able to purchase our new card catalog for the library.

We again ask for your support when a child approaches you. The Raffle Tickets will be 25 cents a piece or five for $1.00. All proceeds will go to the Grayling Elementary Library for record players, tape recorders, and books. The drawing date will be February 15th at 10:30 a.m. You need not be present to win. Shown above is the thirty-drawer card catalog that was purchased with proceeds from the Grayling Elementary School Quilt Raffle in 1979.

VOLCANOES ERUPT—Mrs. McEvers' two fourth grade science classes studied about volcanoes in our classroom in the last two weeks. We read out of books and other things about them. We were making a book on How the Earth Changes. When volcanoes erupt, lava, rocks, and ashes come shooting out. When these cool and harden they change the earth's surface. Volcanoes made the Hawaiian Islands and that changed the earth's surface in many places, such as Mexico and in some parts of the Western United States.

Name Winners

In Farm Bureau Essay Contest

Three students from Grayling Middle School, have been named local winners in the 11th annual America & Me Essay Contest, sponsored by Farm Bureau Insurance Group.

The three, who earned the first, second and third place awards for their school, are Teresa M. Barber, first; Alice F. Matyn, second; and Rae Ann McEvers, third.

All three received award certificates for their achievement. And, as the school's first place winner, Teresa's name will be engraved on a plaque for permanent display in the school.

Teresa's first place essay now advances to the state level competition from which the top ten essays in Michigan will be selected. The top ten statewide winners, who will be announced in March, will receive plaques and U.S. savings bonds ranging in value from $100 to $500, totalling $2,000 in prizes for the top ten essayists.

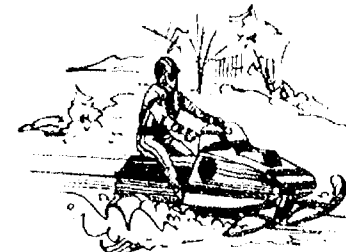

A team of finalist judges, headed by former President Gerald Ford, will determine the top statewide winners. Other members of the finalist judging team are Governor William Milliken, Congressman Robert Carr, and the Chief Justice of the Michigan Supreme Court, Mary S. Coleman.

Several thousand eighth grade students from nearly 400 Michigan schools participated in the 1979-80 America & Me Essay Contest, which was conducted with the help of Farm Bureau Insurance agents across the state.

Started in 1968 and open to all Michigan eighth grade students, the annual contest encourages Michigan youngsters to explore their roles in America's future through "America & Me" essays.

As sponsor of the contest, Farm Bureau Insurance Group has received nine national awards from the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

Tom and Lynn Welsh of Bridgeport visited their parents, the Tom Welshes and LeRoy Akers, this past weekend. Tom received a promotion to assistant manager of the advertising department of Super Foods in Vassar. Congratulations, Tom.

Herb and Cindi Olson have moved from Chestnut St. to their new home in Karen Woods, the former Ostrander home.

The newly decorated home on Park Street is the home of the Phil Dunkley family. It was originally the Frank May home and in later years, Bob Aschenbrenner lived there. The Dunkleys have made a nice addition to Grayling.

Anyone have John Wright's or Debbie McWilliams address? The class of 1970 needs it. Drop off at the Golden Touch for Susan.

Sportsman's Club Sunflower Seeds are now available at C.F. Fick & Sons, 113 Fg St.

Congratulations to Patty Millikin, daughter of Jack and Nita Millikin, who won the Girl's Handicap Bowling Tournament for the Lower Northern Michigan Area held in Baldwin, Sunday, Feb. 3rd. Patty now qualifies for the State Finals to be held March 1st & 2nd at Bridgeport. Good Luck-Patty.
